Your election to the Presidency of the Somali Football Federation

Dear President, dear friend,

I would like to extend my sincerest congratulations and best wishes of success on the occasion of your election as the new President of the Somali Football Federation.

Your knowledge, experience and personal qualities will certainly have an important impact on the stable development of our beautiful game in your country. You can rely on my personal support and FIFA's assistance in order to reach this goal: the doors of the Home of FIFA are open whenever you wish to discuss any relevant issues concerning the game and its governance.

I wish you good luck, strength and every success for this new role and look forward to meeting you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Joseph S. Blatter
